DOCS GALORE FOR THE PARADE

"Tom Show" Procession a Canine Drawing Card.

LETTERS FROM THE BOYS.

All Are Eager to Secure Prizes - Par ade Starts at High Noon Tomorrow - Line of March.

From the way applications are com ing in it looks as if the "Tom Show parade tomorrow would call forth the dogs of Salt Lake as successfully as the Pied Piper of Hamelin lured forth the rats. Letters of application for places in the parade are coming in from all

Each boy, in order to secure a free ticket, must lead his dog in the parade. In order to give added zest to the turnout the following prizes will be given: For the largest dog in line, $1; for the smallest dog, $1; for the best decorated or costumed dog, $1; for the handsomest dog. $1; for the loudest barker, $1, These prizes will be distributed with the free tickets at the close of the parade.

LETTERS FROM THE BOYS.

Several interesting letters have been received from the boys desiring to take part in the parade. The following are

"I have a dog which I want to know if I can use him in your parade and get a free ticket to the Theater. He is get a free ticket to the Theater. He is over 14 years old, and can not bark very loud, but can hark a little. My papa says Jippy is too old to walk in the parade, so, pleas, Mr. Marshall, can I put him in our baby buggy and have him in the parade that way? Hope you will not object to my putting Jippy in the buggy, as I want to see the play very much. Yours very truly, "FRANK HENDRICKS."

"I seen in the papers that you want some dogs an you'll give a free ticket to the 'Tom Show' fer some good dogs. I've got a fine un and you kin use him if you'll giv me a ticket. He kin bark fine, but he's kinder lame because a naber hit him with a brick the othe night fer keepin' him awake. And he' ferocus too, fer he made our old cat go flyin' up a tree. He'll foller good if you jest show him something to eat. I fergot to tell you he's a fox terer. Pa says he is. JONNIE JONES."

DEMAND FOR SEATS GREAT.

The demand for seats is so great that it has become necessary to limit the number of gallery tickets issued the boys to 100. For this reason boys wishing to make sure of a place in the parade and of a ticket should write or apply in person at once to M. F. Cun-ningham, in care of the Tribune, or W. D. Van Blarcom, Jr., in care of the Herald. The letters should tell something about the dog which is to be en-tered. The dogs must be on hand at Yes Temple and Third South streets not later than 11:45 a. m., tomorrow, or they will not be given a place in line.

PARADE A REMINDER.

The parade is merely to remind peo-ple that the Press club's production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will take place at the Salt Lake Theater tomorrow evening, and to make people who have neglected by that time to get seats wish they could go. It will be in commend of Grand Marshal W. D. Van Blarcom, with A. G. Mackenzie, D. Elliott Kelly, John E. Hansen and C. C. Wentzler as chief aides, and E. B. Palmer, Roy Sanders, Murray Schick, Harry S. Harper and Charles W. Bowman as real aides.

THE LINE OF MARCH.

General Supt. J. H. Young Returns From Consultation in Denver -Railroad News.

General Supt. J. H. Young of the Rio Grande returned from Denver last night, after an absence of a week. It is understood that Mr. Young went to Colorado for the purpose of attending a meeting of the heads of the operating lepartment of the Gould system with the object in view of discussing improvements in train service generally.

Mr. Young this morning stated that a new time card would go into effect on the Rio Grande between the 14th and the 21st, with probabilities that it would be on the last named date. Regarding the eastbound trains he said that there would be little change, what would be done would be an alteration on the time of westbound trains. The most radical mprovements, however, will occur in the service. Just what these changes would be he was not in a position to say until after be had been in consultation with Assistant General Traffic Manager S. H. Babcock, G. G. Geiger, assistant superintendent at Grand Junction, came in this morning in order o go over the situation with Mr.
